Any other term not defined herein shall have the same meaning as ascribed to it under the Companies Act, 2013, Listing Agreement, Listing Regulations framed by the Securities

Exchange Board of India or any other relevant regulation/legislation applicable to the Company.

OBJECTIVE OF POLICY

This Policy mechanism provides the comprehensive framework for preservation of documents for a specified period of time to achieve the following objectives:

- a) Effective corporate governance and risk management;
- b) Effective information management to support the work of the administrations and provision of continued access to it at times when needed;
- c) Systematic disposal/destruction of Company's non-current records that have outlived their administrative usefulness.
- d) Identification of the Company's records that are of continuing administrative and historical value to warrant their transfer to and preservation in the Company's Archives.

SCOPE OF THE POLICY

For the purpose of achieving the above objectives, the documents covered as per this Policy have been divided into two sections, i.e. the records or the documents that will be preserved permanently by the Company and the records or the documents that will be preserved for the period of atleast 8 years and not permanently. This Policy applies to the records maintained by the Company in any format or medium. The records which are not required to be retained permanently shall be disposed off according to this Policy.

AUTHORITY AND RESPONSIBILITY

Pursuant to the Listing Regulations, this Policy has been established and approved by the Board of Directors in its meeting held on November 4, 2015. The Company Secretary and Managing Director of the Company, shall be responsible to deal with the records according to the time frame prescribed in the Policy for their preservation. All staff and management of the Company shall assist in implementing this Preservation Policy as appropriate to their respective roles and responsibilities.

CLASSIFICATION OF RECORDS

Based on the requirement and for the purpose of effective management, the period for which the records of the Company shall be maintained have been classified into two categories:

- I. Documents whose preservation shall be permanent in nature;

II. Documents whose preservation shall be at least for 8 years.

The classification of the documents has been made in the Annexure which forms part of this Policy. While prescribing different time periods for preservation of records, the following aspects have been taken into account:

- (a) Compliance with statutory and regulatory requirements.
- (b) Requirements of SEBI/RBI/MCA officials to have access to certain records.
- (c) Requirements of internal and external auditors to have access to certain records. The documents or records not covered by this Policy shall be maintained by the Company for the time period specified for their preservation under any statute or regulation, for the time being in force.

LOCATION OF RECORDS

As mandated by the Companies Act, 2013 or under any other statute, certain records shall be located at the registered office of the Company. The records for which no specific place has been specified under any statute may be maintained at the registered office of the Company or at any other place as may be, decided by the directors of the Company considering their utilization and usefulness.

RECORD RETENTION SCHEDULE

The records referred to in Annexure A of this Policy shall be maintained permanently and the records which are required to be preserved permanently on the website of the Company shall be preserved in line with the Archival Policy of the Company. Records should not be kept longer than is necessary and should be disposed of at the right time as unnecessary retention of records consumes time, space and equipment use. The records referred to in Annexure B shall be preserved for at least 8 years or may be disposed of after the expiry of the periods of their preservation, after the approval of the Company Secretary and Managing Director of the Company. The Company shall maintain a register of disposal of records in the custody of the Compliance Officer of the Company, wherein the brief particulars of the records disposed off shall be entered. The register of disposal of records shall contain the following columns: a) Item Number; b) Brief Particulars of the records disposed of; c) Date of approval for disposal of records; d) Date of disposal; and e) Mode of destruction This register of disposal of records shall be maintained permanently by the Company with the assistance of the Compliance Officer either in physical or electronic form.

RECORD APPRAISAL

The Company shall at regular intervals carry out the appraisal of the records preserved as per this Policy. The purpose of the appraisal process shall be to ensure that the records are examined at the appropriate time to determine (i) whether or not they are worthy of archival preservation; (ii) whether they need to be retained for a longer period as they are still in use; or (iii) whether they should be destroyed. The appraisal of records shall be undertaken only after the approval of the Company Secretary and Managing Director of the Company.

COMPLIANCE OFFICER:

The Company Secretary of the Company shall be the Compliance Officer of the Company.
